CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold at the Auctioneer's discretion.

2.—No person shall advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion; but the amount of bidding for each lot shall be at the discretion of the Auctioneer, and no person shall retract a bidding.

3.—In the case of lots upon which there may be a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

4.—The purchasers shall give in their names and places of abode and shall pay down 5s. in the pound, or more, in part payment, or pay the whole of the purchase money (if required) in default of which the lot or lots so purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.

5.—The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in any of the lots, he making no warranty whatever, nor shall any allowance be made for such errors (if any), and all lots shall be taken away and paid for, whether genuine or authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the Purchaser's expense and risk between 10 and 4 o'clock on Thursday, 10th February, 1916. The Purchasers of any lots left after the time specified in the conditions for clearance will be liable for any expense that may arise from their lots not having been so cleared.

6.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, except such as shall be paid for at the fall of the hammer—and the remainder of the purchase money must absolutely be paid before delivery of any lot or lots.

7.—The Auctioneers will not recognize the transfer of any lot from one purchaser to another, nor make any alteration in the sale book in respect thereof.

8.—Any damage done to the premises caused by removal or otherwise of any lots must be made good and paid for immediately by the persons committing the same, as the Auctioneers may direct, principals being held responsible for the acts of their agents or servants.

LASTLY.—If any purchaser shall neglect or fail to comply with any of the conditions, his or her deposit money shall be absolutely forfeited, and the lots uncleared shall be re-sold by public auction or private contract, and the deficiency (if any) on such re-sale, together with all attendant and incidental expenses, including charge for warehouse or other room, shall be paid by the Purchaser making default, and shall be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but without prejudice to the right of the Vendor or the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at the present sale.
